LODGE No. 123 • OKLAHOMA CITY

Jason Nelson understands the difficulties faced by the law enforcement community. He is committed to leading the fight for a tougher crackdown on crime and drugs in our neighborhoods. That's why the Oklahoma City Fraternal Order of Police endorsed Jason Nelson for House District 87 State Representative.

Randy Kirby, left, president of the Oklahoma City Fraternal Order of Police congratulates Jason Nelson on receiving the FOP's endorsement for District 87 State Representative.

When Oklahoma's District Attorneys Association needed someone to champion criminal justice issues, they turned to Jason Nelson to be their advocate at the Capitol. As State Representative, Jason Nelson will focus on protecting honest, law-abiding citizens from criminals – not the other way around.

“As your State Representative, I will work to ensure safety in our streets and in our homes so that families are allowed freedom and stability. We need to get tougher on criminals – and that means locking up those individuals who commit crimes and have no business on our streets.

“I have friends who have been victims of violent crimes, and I know the system needs to be more concerned with helping the victims of crime than offending the criminals. There is nothing I would not do to protect my family and that's the attitude I'll take to the Capitol. That's why I support your right to defend yourself, your family and your property.”
