

STATE
REPRESENTATIVE

JASON

NELSON

HOUSE DISTRICT 87

VOTE
NOV. 4

Jason Nelson knows that controlling property tax increases will protect families and help make our economy strong

Jason Nelson is ready to fight for real tax relief for property owners right here in District 87.

Property tax has been called the “hidden tax” because many of us don’t notice it regularly. It’s also been called the “worst tax” because it keeps going up, no matter what.

It is a fact that property taxes have increased at a rate nearly double the rate of inflation over the past 20 years. Skyrocketing property taxes are unacceptable.

Jason Nelson is committed to protecting you by supporting property tax legislation that will make a real difference to all homeowners.

Property tax reform is an absolute necessity and it can be a reality if we elect Jason Nelson our next State Representative. He has the leadership skills and the true motivation to help make it happen.

Jason Nelson will fight to eliminate the automatic 5% property tax increase which now burdens every Oklahoma County homeowner.

One of my top priorities as your legislator will be to fight for tax relief for all property owners by eliminating the automatic 5% property tax increase. It can be done ... and it must be done if we are to ensure a strong economy in our great state.

Fundamentally, this is an issue about right and wrong. It is wrong to tax people out of their homes, especially during these uncertain economic times.

Your vote on November 4th will allow me to fight for the rights of taxpayers and property owners. I hope I can count on your support, and in return, you can count on me to fight tirelessly for you.
